JEQ FOUNDATION SIGNS GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH THE MFANTSIPIM OLD BOYS ASSOCIATION, USA 1980 CHAPTER (MOBA80)

The Joseph and Elizabeth Quansah (JEQ) Foundation signed a General Agreement with the MOBA80, USA on November 13, 2022. This partnership agreement formalizes a mutual goal of providing scholarships to excellent but needy college/university students in Ghana, West Africa. As part of the agreement, MOBA80 USA will sponsor one Mfantsipim student who has either enrolled or is about to enroll in an accredited university and or college in Ghana with housing and tuition scholarships throughout the selected student's undergraduate education. MOBA80 USA will also offer mentorship and other related academic/career opportunities for some of the JEQ Foundation's scholarship recipients in Ghana.

Present at the virtual ceremony were Drs. Joseph and Elizabeth Quansah, Founders, JEQ Foundation, USA. MOBA80 USA representatives included Charles Antwi (President), Mr. Thompson Grant (Coordinator), and Mr. Samuel Abanyie (Treasurer). Special thank you to Dr. Kofi Clarke, a member of the MOBA80 USA chapter for initiating this collaboration and ensuring its implementation.

We encourage more Ghanaian, and USA corporate entities and individuals to join us to enrich needy but excellent college students and families lives in Ghana.
